

ALBERT BARTLEY FRENCH AWARD

$100.00

(PER SCHOOL)

Criteria

The students who have shown the most proficiency in the study of the French language.

Deadline

N/A

History

Established in 1972 upon the retirement of Mr. Bartley after 38 years at Sir Adam Beck Secondary School. Upon the closing of Sir Adam Beck, the award was transferred and split between two schools.

Selection Process

The recipient to be determined by the School Awards Committee.

Available To

A. B. Lucas Secondary School and London South Collegiate Institute