History

This award was created to honour the memory of Alex Clark, a former Music Teacher from Medway High School. He created a huge band and vocal program at Medway that was known around the province. Alex served as Music Consultant in Elgin County and as organist and choir director at his church for 32 years. He will be remembered as a wonderful musician, organist, choir leader and teacher who inspired and challenged those with whom he worked.

Selection Process

The recipient to be determined by the School Awards Committee.
