

ALISON BEAVIS – CLASS OF '80 MEMORIAL AWARD

$2,000.00

Criteria

The award will be granted to a graduating student proceeding to post-secondary education with a strong, demonstrated interest in the humanities, who has participated in the artistic and cultural life of Central Elgin or the St. Thomas community, and is interested in an academic or teaching career.

Deadline

See your school's guidance/student services office.

History

Alison was in the band, School Show, and many other arts activities at Central Elgin Collegiate Institute and developed a life-long love of music, literature and the performing arts. She earned a BA from Wilfred Laurier University and an MBA from York in addition to being a CPA. Later, Alison earned a BEd from Brock and launched a second career as an instructor at York and Ryerson Universities. She found her true passion in teaching and felt enormous pride in the achievements of the several hundred students she taught each year.
