

GEORGE A. SIMMONS MUSIC AWARD

$100.00

Criteria

A graduating student who is pursuing a university education and has contributed to the school with at least 3 years of study and participation while at the school.

Deadline

See your school's guidance/student services office.

History

Established in 1992 by George A. Simmons, former Director of Education for the former Oxford County Board of Education.

Selection Process

The recipient deemed most worthy from those considered will be determined by the selection committee comprised of the principal and appropriate staff members of the Student Services Department and Music Department.

Available To

Woodstock Collegiate Institute