

KATIE CHIASSON AWARD FOR EXCELLENCE

$500.00

Criteria

Awarded to a graduating student, continuing post-secondary studies, who:

- Demonstrates a positive attitude, an honest effort and ongoing participation in the life of the school and community
- Demonstrates a strong sense of self, neither a leader nor follower
- Is willing to participate where needed to support individuals, groups, the school and/or the community

Deadline

See your school's guidance/student services office.

History

Established September 2002 by Mrs. Catherine Chiasson-Smith and Kirk Smith, the mother and stepfather of Katie Chiasson, who was a student at North Middlesex District High School.

Selection Process

Recipients will be determined by the School Awards Committee.

Intent: an all-round student who is not recognized by any other awards; is not a first-place finisher; involvement in school activities (Clubs, Yearbook, SAC, MAA, Teams) and their community which may be quietly done without expected recognition; graduating and going on to career preparation studies (e.g., apprenticeship, police college, college - of any kind, or university).
