

LAWSON PRIZE FOR FRENCH CONVERSATION

$250.00 PER STUDENT
PER SCHOOL

Criteria

The student must not be French-speaking (one whose parents' mother tongue is other than French, and who has not attended a French school) and who has made the greatest progress in learning to communicate in French or has indicated the greatest motivation to learn that language.

Deadline

See your school's guidance/student services office.

History

Established in 1977 by Col. T. Lawson, President of Lawson & Jones Limited.

Selection Process

School Awards Committee will make the selection, with French teachers to be included.

Available To

London Secondary Schools