

MABEL RANNEY SCHOLARSHIP (SALFORD WOMEN'S INSTITUTE)

$150.00

Criteria

This award is to be presented to a student who is in the Individual and Families in a Diverse Society class. In the event there is no candidate in the Individuals and Families in a Diverse Society class, then the award should be presented to the person with the highest standing in the grade 12 Food and Nutrition Science class.

Deadline

See your school's guidance/student services office.

History

This award was named the Mabel Ranney Scholarship in honour of Mrs. Mabel Ranney, a Salford resident who, in 1933, founded the Salford branch of the Federated Women's Institute of Ontario.

Selection Process

School Awards Committee to select student.

Application To

Ingersoll District Collegiate Institute