

MARSTAN WOOLLINGS ART IN LITERATURE AWARD

$300.00

Criteria

Awarded annually to a Grade 11 or 12 student who is able to make meaningful connections between Art and Literature, as demonstrated through their writing and/or art making process.

Deadline

See your school's guidance/student services office.

History

Marstan (Marty) Woollings started his teaching career at Beal in 1969 as part of the English Department. He later returned as Vice-Principal in 1998. His love of literature and art could be seen in his teaching, his vast book collection, and his regular purchases of from Beal art students.

Selection Process

School Selections Committee

Available To

H.B. Beal Secondary School