

ROSE AND CLAUD GILL MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP - ARTS

$2,000.00

Criteria

The scholarships are to reflect the interests of Boyde's late parents Rose & Claud Gill in the fields of Music and Sports/Athletics.

The scholarships are to be granted to two graduating students of Medway High School who have been granted admission to an institution of higher learning; one each of the following fields: Music, Instrument Training, Composition, Teaching, Music Therapy, Performance, Industrial Arts, Musical Theater, Television Programming and other related fields.

Deadline

History

Boyde Gill attended and graduated from Medway High School from 1950-1953. He went on and furthered his education and worked as an Economist for both the Federal and Provincial Government. He moved to Tennessee where he built a log home and married a Southern Belle. He passed away on May 20, 2014.

Selection Process

To be determined by Medway's Awards Committee, to be presented at commencement.

Available To

Medway High School

ROSE AND CLAUD GILL
MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP - ARTS

$2,000.00

See your school's guidance/student services office.